

CENTRE FOR CULTURAL WITNESS IN THE CITY
IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CITY PRAYER BREAKFAST

MONDAY 13TH MAY

---

THINKING DEEPLY TO SPEAK WISELY

---

The Centre for Cultural Witness is based in Lambeth Palace and is led by Bishop Graham Tomlin

Building on very successful training the Centre has offered for bishops and leaders in other fields, this day will seek to equip senior Christians working in the City of London, to grow more confident in speaking and writing in a way that commends the gospel in wider culture.

Speakers include:

Glen Scrivener, author of the bestselling "The Air we Breathe"

Andrew Dilnot, Broadcaster and Economist, Warden of Nuffield College Oxford

Graham Tomlin, former Bishop of Kensington, author of many books

Topics for the day will include:

- The nature of Christian Witness
- How Christianity Shaped western culture
- The Economy in Christian perspective
- How to communicate for maximum effect

It will include a buffet breakfast, a working lunch and a three-course dinner with wine.

